2009 Season: Daniel Bucher recently completed his second season with the Tiger cross country squad. He redshirted the 2008 season but competed as a redshirt junior during the 2009 campaign.

Bucher finished as high as fifth on the squad this season and was sixth at the South Central Regional in November.

He posted a career-best 26:13 at the FHSU Tiger Open to finish 35th overall at the meet. He was also the team's fifth runner at the Friends Invitational where he placed 15th overall, his highest finish of 2009.

Career: Bucher redshirted the entire 2008-09 schoolyear but still competed several times as an unattached runner last year.

He will compete in the longer distances for FHSU this year, focusing primarily on the 3,000 meters and 5,000 meters indoors and the 5,000 meters and 10,000 meters outdoors.

Bucher spent two seasons running Garden City Community College where he helped build the Broncbusters into a national contender in cross country.

He is working on a degree in Health and Human Performance and plans to graduate from FHSU in the spring of 2011.
